

Setting HoriZZon Server invitation limitations

i Team Server is now called HoriZZon Server. While the new name is being implemented in the software and on BiZZdesign Support, the old name may still be visible in places until the process has been completed. For more information, please refer to Team Server is now HoriZZon Server.

w Only available in the BiZZdesign on-premise solution. If you are working with the cloud solution, you can contact BiZZdesign Support to submit a change request for this setting.

Users who are registered in the HoriZZon Server can invite other people to work on model packages and projects. By default, any person with an e-mail address can be invited. A person's e-mail address can be entered and an invitation will be sent. For security reasons, inviting people can be limited.

i Limiting user invitations should only be done by application administrators who are familiar with installing and configuring software and databases.

Required roles

System Administrator

Steps:

1. In the sidebar menu, click Settings > General.
2. On the general settings page, in Invitations, the following options are available:

Limit invitations to existing users and groups with the Designer or Lead Designer role: Activate this option to limit user invitations to users who exist in the HoriZZon Server and have the Designer or Lead Designer role. It means that people that do not (yet) exist in the HoriZZon Server, and existing users that do not have the Designer or Lead Designer role, cannot be invited to work on a model package or project.

Allowed e-mail domains: To limit user invitations to specific e-mail domains, enter the allowed domains. Type the domains as a comma-separated list. Example: mydomain.com, mydomain.cloud, mydomain.org. Type * to allow all domains.

3. Click Apply to save the changes.

If the e-mail addresses entered for an invitation do not comply with the limitations set, an error message will be shown indicating, and the invitation operation will be canceled.
